KEY PERFORMANCE INDICATORS

SUMMARY

A third-consecutive year of record retail sales volume in Boston is almost unimaginable following a marked deceleration in 23Q1 and 23Q2. Elevated interest rates appear to have finally depressed capital markets, and expectations are growing for 2023 to be one of the lightest investment years in a decade.

While the 175 trades in 23Q1 were the fewest since 21Q1, the bigger potential takeaway is that it ended a streak of seven quarters with 200 or more confirmed trades. Prior to this stretch, the longest in the metro's recorded history was the four quarters ending in 16Q2. Investor bullishness on Boston retail assets and the buying power hovering around them was evident in the first year of the pandemic. Even in the fog of a world-changing event, with entire areas being disrupted, an average of 185 deals cleared per quarter in 2020, in line with the 10-year quarterly deal count average.

Last quarter showed the strain on sellers trying to hold their ground on price. The average bid-ask spread was over 11%, and the average confirmed cap rate jumped 30 basis points to 6.25%. In the full two calendar years ending Dec. 31, 2022, the gap between list and sales price was less than 7% and deals took a full month less to close.

First quarter sales volume of $335 million, the lowest in nearly three years, was propped up by a four-property portfolio sale in February that included three Stop & Shop grocery stores in Malden, Swampscott, and Framingham. Orion Real Estate Group out of Miami closed on the portfolio for an allocated price of roughly $70 million and a confirmed in-place cap rate of 7.29%. According to a press release from the seller, The Necessity Retail REIT believed that it had maxed out on value and planned to use the proceeds to reduce debt across its portfolio.

Investors continue to seek well-leased, grocery-anchored assets, as reflected in the second quarter's top transaction. In May, AEW sold the 127,800-SF Lincoln Plaza in Hingham for $45.3 million ($354/SF). Located in the Route 3 Corridor Submarket, the property was 99% leased at the time of sale, anchored by a 68,000-SF Stop & Shop and a 32,000-SF Marshall's.
